ABOUT ME

I have extensive experience in voice-overs, theatre and film, both in front and behind the camera. In 2003 I became a studio director in the TV commercials industry, and between that and working as a voice artist they act as my bread-and-butter work while I audition for film and theatre. On average I do upwards of about half a dozen commercials a year, a few docu-dramas, and every once in awhile I get to do a little tv, film and theatre. I'm naturally comedic, my timing is excellent, and more often than not I'm given carte blanche to improvise and have a bit of fun with the script!

Please feel free to visit my website SuburbanBearStudio.com to see and hear a few samples of my work.
